ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND ASSUMPTION OF RISKS, AND AGREEMENT OF RELEASE AND INDEMNITY

The success of the program in which you (or son, daughter or ward) are participating depends to a large extent on good communication among all parties involved, including school and parents and guardians of students under 18 years of age. It is important to World Ocean School that you understand the nature of its programs and that you be informed regarding certain issues including risks and limitations of liability. Your signature below reflects certain understandings and, with respect to adult students and parents and guardians, certain agreements. The school, parent or guardian makes these agreements for himself or herself individually, and on behalf of the minor student. "I" and other first person references, below, are to the minor and adult student and to the school or parent or guardian unless indicated otherwise.

For and in consideration of being allowed to participate in the World Ocean School Program for which I (or my child or ward) have enrolled, I understand and agree as follows:

I am aware that certain risks and dangers may be encountered during the program in which I (or my child or ward) will be participating, offered by World Ocean School, its agents and associates. Some of these risks include, but are not limited to, the hazards of sailing aboard a traditionally rigged schooner along the eastern seaboard, launching - sailing and rowing the ship's dories, accidents or illnesses at sea distant from medical facilities; the unpredictable forces of nature; acts of terrorism, and travel by air, train, automobile, boat or other means of conveyance. These risks may result in the loss of property, personal injury, including emotional trauma, and in extreme cases even death.

I understand that members of the staff of World Ocean School have been available to answer any questions I might have regarding these or any other items which describe the World Ocean School program.

I acknowledge and assume the risks described above and all others associated with the activities in which I, or my students, child or my ward, will be participating and accept full responsibility for my, or the child's safety, personal property and well-being in encountering such risks.

As an adult student or, and as parent or guardian of a minor student, individually and on behalf of that minor student, I agree, to the fullest extent allowed by law as follows:

1) to release World Ocean School, its trustees, agents, representatives, officers, directors, employees, owners, independent contractors and all others associated with it, and the owners of properties on which World Ocean School activities may take place (the Released Parties), from any right, claim or cause of action which I, or the minor student may have for any injury, damage or loss to person or property arising from my (or the minor student's) enrollment or participation in any activity of World Ocean School. Such rights, claims or causes of action include those for personal injury, wrongful death, emotional trauma, property damage, products liability (including strict liability), breach of warranty or contract, or any other legal theory, except the gross negligence or intentional wrongs of World Ocean School.

2) to defend, hold harmless and indemnify World Ocean School and other Released Parties from any claim, and from any liability, loss damages or expenses (including attorneys' fees) resulting from a claim, including one brought by a fellow student, rescuer, a member of my, or the minor student's family, or any other person asserting a loss in any way related to my or the child's participation in the activities of World Ocean School.

3) I am aware that The World Ocean School is a charitable corporation located in Camden, County of Knox, Maine U.S.A. All matters relating to or arising out of or involving in any way my (or my student's son's, daughter's or ward's) relationship with World Ocean School shall be governed by the substantive laws of the State of Maine and any mediation or suit shall be filed only in the State of Maine. If a dispute with World Ocean School cannot be amicably resolved, I agree to submit the matter to mediation before a mutually agreeable mediator recognized by Maine courts, in an effort to avoid suit. I agree to pay all costs and attorneys' fees incurred by World Ocean School in defending a claim or suit if the claim or suit is withdrawn or to the extent a court determines that World Ocean School is not responsible for the claim, injury or loss.

If any part of this agreement is found to be invalid, the remainder of the agreement nevertheless shall be of full force and effect. The terms of this Acknowledgment and Assumption of Risks, and Release and Indemnity Agreement are binding upon me, my heirs, executors, administrators and all members of my family.

Please sign one of the below—whichever is appropriate to your position.
